Did you know...?

The Stairs to Nowhere

Did you ever notice the iron railing and the steps at the base of the Columbia Building under Perdues?

The stairway entrance has been blocked for years, but those steps used to lead to a barber shop, owned by Aaron Bertsch. He later moved his shop across the street, in a building with broad steps that used to be where the Baptist Church parking lot is at the corner of Walnut and South Sampson Streets.

1. Get a copy of the month's book. We'll have lots of extra copies behind the desk at Tremont District Library that you can check out. Just ask us for one!
2. Read it!
3. On the day of book club, join Miss Lizzi in the Meeting Room to talk about your favorite and least favorite parts of the book, and hear what other kids have to say about it. We'll also do an activity or craft related to each month's book. Did I mention there will be snacks? There will! Miss Lizzi tries to be allergen free on snack days. Let her know if you have any allergies she should watch out for.
